

ABSTRACT

A patient-side support system provides physician support materials keyed to detailed diagnosis codes. The support materials encourage the physician to provide detailed records without additionally burdening the physician's practice thus providing a solid basis for outcome-based evaluation of different treatments in a practice group.

MSWORD/MKE/5025370